Top officials meet, details not released

by The Associated Press

WASHINGTON — Top U.S. and Soviet officials held a surprise meeting at the State Department Sunday as President Carter remained at Camp David working on a speech concerning the Russian brigade in Cuba.

Secretary of State Cyrus Vance and Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin began their meeting at 2 p.m. but State Department spokesman David Nall would give no indication of the purpose of the meeting or even which side had first suggested it.

Nall said later the meeting lasted an hour and 24 minutes. "I can't give you any idea what they talked about," he said. "I don't know."

President Carter announced that he would address the nation Monday at 8 p.m. CDT after negotiations with the Soviets apparently had broken down, with the Russians refusing to budge on Carter's insistence that they change the "status quo."

When Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko returned to Moscow last week after meeting in New York with Vance, he gave no indication whatever of softening the Soviet position. The Soviets maintain that the brigade - which U.S. officials say has 2,000 to 3,000 soldiers, 40 tanks and artillery and armored personnel carriers - has been stationed in Cuba since the 1962 missile crisis with the full knowledge of previous American presidents.

In a news conference Friday, Cuban President Fidel Castro echoed the hard Soviet line and accused Carter of creating an artificial crisis.

Carter then huddled with 15 retired national security officials, including former secretaries of state Henry Kissinger, William Rogers and Dean Rusk. The president flew by helicopter to his mountain top retreat Saturday afternoon accompanied by his wife, Rosalyn.

Panthers scratch by Salukis, 22-14

by Andy Savoie

Some people believe that the number 13 brings bad luck, but do not try telling that to anyone on Eastern's top-ranked NCAA Division II football squad.

The Panthers gridders broke that old superstition in grand style Saturday by beating Southern Illinois-Carbondale 22-14 for its nation leading 13th straight victory.

Added to the impressive feat, however, is the fact that it was a come-from-behind victory over Southern's tough Division I squad.

"I knew we'd come back," Eastern linebacker coach Rich Schachner said of his faith in an Eastern squad that trailed Southern for almost all of the first 3½ quarters. "I just can't say enough," he continued. "Everybody did his job. It was a total team effort."

Schachners' assertions are well supported as the Panthers methodically whittled away at the Salukis 14-7 lead until, with 7:06 remaining, wide receiver James Warring culminated a 66 yard, 8 play drive with a 2 yard "alley-oop" touchdown reception from quarterback Steve Turk. A key play in the drive was a 30 yard sweep around left end by Mr. Reliable, Poke Cobb, who gained 114 yards for his fifth consecutive game of over 100 yards rushing this year.

Fullbacks Lonnie Denton and Rod Slaughter also combined for an additional 116 yards, and the offensive line in front of them had its "best outing of the year-for its competition," offensive line coach Joe Taylor said.

On this day, however, the majority of the credit for the Panther victory had to go its defense, which was credited with eight quarterback sacks, and forced seven Southern turnovers.

And lest anyone think these turnovers were the result of some sort of fluke, Taylor put such thoughts to rest by saying "it wasn't the fact that they were screwing up, it was all that pressure."

This pressure became vital in during Southern's final drive to tie the score, when with just under three minutes remaining, runs of 35 and 39 yards by fullback Burnell Quinn and quarterback Arthur Williams brought the Salukis to the Eastern 11 yard line.

Rich Brown made a game-saving tackle on Williams jaunt, and echoed how confident of victory his teammates were when he said, "There was no way I could let him score. We've worked too hard. I know that if we stopped them there, that we could keep them from scoring. And they didn't. They didn't get another yard."

One of the biggest reasons the Salukis were stopped cold was the tremendous performance of defensive tackle Pete Catan. Catan was credited with two sacks on that final drive, and had six for the day along with two fumble recoverys.

"I came in this game sore from all the hitting (in practice) this week," Catan said in crediting the additional contact for the defenses dominance. "But it was worth it."

This extra preparation may have made the difference, because the Salukis boasted a very talented squad that had overcome its errors to lead the Panthers 14-13 with less than eight minutes remaining in the contest.

They began accumulating this lead very early, when split end Kevin House took a Jeff Gossett punt on the fourth play of the game and swept 60 yards down the right sideline for a touchdown.

Things looked even bleaker for the Panthers just two minutes later when Steve Turk threw an interception that was returned to the Panthers' 15 yard line. But Eastern's Ray Jeske stopped what seemed to be sure scoring chance with a fumble recovery, and the play helped spark the Panthers to 16-play, 87-yard touchdown drive. Cobb gained 46 of these yards during the march, which culminated with a five yard touchdown pass from Turk to Warring that the wide receiver suggested.

"Sometimes I come back (to the huddle) and tell Turk I can beat my man," Warring said.

Things calmed down a bit after this score until Southern reserve quarterback Williams connected with House early in the second quarter for a 62-yard line.

Tailback Clarence Robison took it in from there, and the PAT gave Southern a 14-7 lead. A fumble recovery on the Southern 16 by Pete Catan gave Dan DiMartino the opportunity to kick his first field goal, a 30 yarder before half time to make it 14-10.

The Panther senior kicked another one from thirty-one yards out at the end of the third quarter to pull the Panthers within one, (14-13) before Eastern took in the game winner.

Jackson: Arafat desires meeting

CAIRO, Egypt — The Rev. Jesse Jackson said Sunday Palestinian guerrilla leader Yasser Arafat does not seek to “exterminate Jews” and wants to meet with President Carter.

The American black activist arrived in Cairo at the head of a 17-member delegation to meet with President Anwar Sadat after intensive weekend talks in Beirut, Lebanon, with Arafat, whom he described as “flexible” on key issues of the Arab-Israeli dispute.

After meeting with Sadat and with Syrian President Hafez Assad in Damascus, Jackson said, he will return to Beirut and meet with the executive committee of Arafat’s Palestine Liberation Organization, which is to draft a position paper for Jackson to carry back to Washington.

“Mr. Arafat wants to talk to President Carter,” Jackson told reporters at an airport news conference. In Beirut earlier he had said he felt the U.S. chief executive “needed some clarification” of the PLO position.

The PLO now appears to be focusing on creating an independent state in the Israeli-occupied West Bank of the Jordan River and the Gaza Strip, Jackson said. There is a “growing consensus” that this is a “very live” option for the PLO, he said.

Despite Israeli assertions that the PLO is a terrorist group committed to killing Jews, Jackson said, the PLO leaders he talked to “categorically take the position that the interpretation that they want to exterminate Jews does not represent their point of view.”

Radar equipment still heavily used

MIAMI — Five months after a judge short-circuited police radar in Florida, patrolmen and traffic courts still appear to be relying on an estimated 100,000 radar guns to monitor the nation’s highways.

Spot checks by The Associated Press in a dozen states suggest that the ruling has had little effect outside of Dade County, where police temporarily pulled their 22 radar guns off the road. The number of speeding tickets plummeted 50 percent.

“Police agencies don’t understand what happened down ther,” said Neal Sanders, director of legislative relations for Electrolert Inc. of Troy, Ohio, which manufactures the “Fuzzbuster” radar-detection device and spent $30,000 to underwrite the Miami court challenge.

“You’re fighting 20 years of tradition and a great deal of inertia,” Sanders said.

Mondale blasts Cuban linkage

LEBANON, N.H. — Linking Senate approval of the arms limitation treaty to the Soviet troop presence in Cuba is “reckless leadership” and “outrageous,” says Vice President Walter Mondale.

“To link apples and oranges together, to hurt ourselves in one way in order to deal with a non-aligned issue, seems to me poor leadership,” he told the fall meeting of the New England Associated Press News Executives Association on Saturday.

On Friday, Senate Minority Leader Howard Baker, R-Tenn., told the same group that Senate approval of SALT-II “would not have a prayer” until the Soviet troop issue has been resolved.

“That kind of reckless leadership is exactly why we need someone who has good sense and a good sense of priorities,” Mondale said. He made no specific reference to Baker.

The vice president said President Carter has displayed sound leadership in dealing “in a mature, restrained and balanced way with these problems in international as well as domestic affairs.”

“Let us not try to load collateral matters on something as fundamental as the SALT II treaty and say, ‘Even though the SALT treaty helps us, even though we’re stronger with it than without it, even though its adoption means a reduced chance of nuclear warfare, let us hurt ourselves to express our resentment at the existence of Russian troops in Cuba,’” Mondale said.

UAW ratifies 3-year wage pact

DETROIT — Rank and file members of the United Auto Workers union ratified by a 2-1 margin their new three-year national wage agreement with General Motors Corp., union officials said Sunday.

The final tally announced Sunday night was 129,374 favoring the new agreement and 51,391 against, the officials said.

UAW president Douglas Fraser and vice president Irving Bluestone said GM had been formally notified of the ratification.

Of 152 local unions voting on the three-year pact, only two had not yet reported their vote, Bluestone said.

‘Attractive’ cop catches 10 men

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. — Policeman Michael Kearney didn’t know he could look so attractive - but because he did, 10 men have been charged with soliciting the services of a prostitute.

Kearney was among officers assigned to a crackdown on prostitution in the Long Island community.

The slim, 28-year-old Kearney’s uniform was a handbag, make-up, a blonde wig, spike heels, tight jeans and a snug turtleneck over a well-stuffed bra.

His arrests, in just three hours, included a certified public accountant, and the owners of a dry cleaners and a delicatessen.

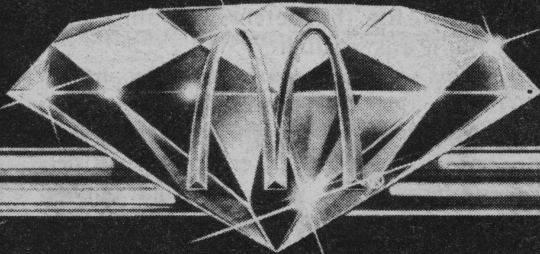

“We were forced to use a male as a decoy because we don’t have any women on the force,” a police official said. “For the past five years, we’ve used a sergeant as a decoy to catch muggers. But this is the first time we’ve used a decoy to arrest johns.”

Two prostitutes were also arrested, police said.

CUPB meets at Robinson, discusses Eastern goals

by Herb Meeker

At a retreat on Sept. 24 and 25, the Committee on University Planning and Budget discussed and revised Eastern President Daniel E. Marvin's draft of university mission and goal statements. The CUPB met at Robinson in a "retreat" session. The retreat group of 25 people comprised a cross section of the Eastern community. The student body, faculty, administration staff and civil service workers were represented. The university mission and goals statements concern the general priorities of education at Eastern. The mission statement deals with curricular priorities for the students, and the goals deal with all areas and improvement through mutual effort of everyone at the university. The retreat format involved the full committee meeting together to hear comments by Marvin concerning the draft statements and the retreat. The committee then broke into smaller discussion groups to facilitate comment from all areas of the membership. After these groups met, the entire group reconvened and then adjourned. Marvin appointed CUPB member Carol Elder coordinator of a committee to consider the discussion group reports and redraft the mission and goal statements before submitting them to other campus organizations. Marvin said the "polished" draft will have to be approved by the committee before being distributed on campus.

The university paid the bill for the retreat, approximately $1,000, out of the general administration budget, Marvin said. Marvin said due to various suggestions made at the retreat, has revised the "state of the university" speech he will give Thursday. "I honestly think it (the retreat) was productive," Marvin said. "It was an intense chance to talk in an informal setting."

Pope starts U.S. tour, first stop in Boston

BOSTON (AP) — Pope John Paul II's visit to Boston which begins Monday afternoon could temporarily double the city's population with an influx of pilgrims, officials said. John Paul was in Ireland on Sunday, the second day of his third trip as pope outside the Vatican. He is scheduled to arrive at 3 p.m. EDT, first setting foot in the U.S. at Logan International Airport. For Boston, the U.S. city whose concentration of Roman Catholics is second only the Chicago's, it would be the first visit by a pope in its 350-year history. Monday was declared a state holiday. City officials and police estimated last week that from 1 million to 2 million persons will try to see him during his 18-hour stay. Boston has about 640,000 residents. From 400,000 to 1 million people are expected to crowd Boston Common for an outdoor papal Mass, set for two hours after his arrival, and hundreds of thousands more could see the pope as he is driven from the airport to the Mass. The pope will be greeted at the airport by Cardinal Humberto Medeiros, Boston's arch-bishop, and by Rosalyn Carter, wife of President Carter. John Paul will be driven from the airport through several neighborhoods to the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, for a prayer service with 2,000 New England priests. He then will travel to Boston Common for the Mass. Following the Mass, the motorcade will take John Paul to the cardinal's residence for an overnight stay.

Championship spirit returns to Eastern ranks

Last year's championship fever is alive once again in the hearts of Panther football fans. The Panther squad gave us their best effort Saturday at McAndrew Stadium.

It was another come-from-behind thriller, capped off by outstanding defense and a consistent offensive show. It truly was a great team effort.

The Eastern-Southern intrastate rivalry, dormant for 18 years, exploded into the best game of the season, so far. Panther fans who made the long trek to Carbondale were not disappointed by the final outcome—a narrow 22-14 victory.

And both athletic departments shouldn't be disappointed with the large turnout of loyal fans on both sides of the sidelines. Eastern and Southern's athletic directors should secure this rivalry for seasons to come by scheduling more contests besides the one that will be played here in 1981.

This victory transcends school pride throughout the university ranks—students, faculty, staff and administration. This pride in school accomplishment creates a new respect for Eastern outside the confines of the Charleston community.

The Panther win puts the team into the national spotlight, by extending their winning streak to 13 consecutive games, the best win streak in the nation. Moreover, the Southern contest was considered as a miniature state championship in stature.

Congratulations are forwarded once again to Coach Darrell Mudra, his staff and players for continuing to keep Eastern on a successful path to national honors.

Last Saturday's victory may be the cornerstone to the best season ever by a Panther team. By taking this newly re-aquainted foe in a tough contest, everyone gains momentum toward a tough Mid-Continent Conference schedule that starts Saturday against Western Illinois.

Democratic foundation returns to Nigeria

On Oct. 1, 1963 the African republic of Nigeria became independent from the Commonwealth. Domestic turmoil started from the outset.

The first general elections were held in 1964. There were disorders and boycotts from several of the nation's 27 political parties. It was alleged that the political party in power rigged the election.

In January 1966, an army military faction overthrew the civil government. Six months later, another coup occurred, and a new military government came into power, this one under the leadership of Gen. Yakubu Gowon.

For the past 19 years, the Nigerian government has tried to stabilize a former colonial possession into a smoothly run state.

And a major act of stabilization is the military stepping aside from the government office.

The handover of the military regime to a civilian government is the highlight of a Nigerian independence day. Unlike other former colonies still imbittered in governmental chaos, Nigeria has taken a major step on the road to improvement.

Most African nations break away with from Western ideals at the time of their independence from their Western colonial rulers.

The break away from colonial rule leads many new nations into similar turmoil that Nigeria had to overcome. Internal political struggles, military coups, or Marxist regimes clashing with Western ideals. Some of this still persists today: the unsettled rebels in Rhodesia, the apartheid in South Africa and Cuban troops in Angola.

But the Nigerian return to a fundamental Western philosophy is from an American perspective, a good sign. This may be a turning point in the way some African nations perceive the United States and its goals and policies.

Third World nations have in the past rallied against the Western superpowers in the United Nations. American diplomacy will have better ground in the future if this is changed.

With Nigeria returning to a civil government, its rewards will undoubtedly come through aid and capital development plans from similar governments around the world.

Only time will tell if Nigeria has a strong enough foundation to succeed and overcome their Third World status. But the foundation they have chosen is similar to the cornerstone of any democracy the freedoms to that allow individuals to change the course of their own history, and to rule themselves in the process.

And maybe other African nations, some now entrenched in military or Soviet backed governments, will look to this example as a guiding step for their own development in the future.

Heavy traffic

Editor,

I have read with interest the editorial on signs and I agree with it most heartily. The student versus automobile situation on Garfield Street is a real problem.

At night it is particularly easy to leave the library parking lot and forget that one must immediately make a stop on the street.

Traffic direction during change of classes would be very useful. At 8 a.m. and during the noon hour it is almost impossible to get into or out of that parking lot.

Most of the drivers involved are reporting for work or attempting to leave for lunch. Lacking traffic direction, it would be courteous if students would occasionally pause to let a car through.

Contributing to the traffic problem in the area is the fact that the driveway from Fourth Street to Garfield, serving the Triad dorms and the library, is regarded by the students as a pedestrian way.

Motor traffic there is heavy, delivery trucks, University vehicles and private cars, but students demand and take the right of way.

Panamanians welcome Canal Zone Sunday

by The Associated Press

BALBOA, Canal Zone — With beer, fireworks and official ceremonies, Americans bid a farewell and Panamanians a welcome Sunday to the Panama Canal Zone.

The American-Panamanian canal treaties signed in 1977 provided for the U.S. Canal Zone to become Panamanian territory at midnight Sunday.

The celebrations, Panama's President Aristides Rojo said, mark "a day of jubilation and pride . . . . The act of a people entering a portion of their territory that has been under foreign jurisdiction for seven long decades."

The occasion was more somber for some of the 35,000 Americans in the zone who are concerned about life under Panamanian law.

But on Sunday evening, hundreds of Americans were expected to show up in front of the Panama Canal Co.'s Administration Building here, where Canal Zone Gov. Harold Parfitt was to lower the American flag in his final official act at 6 p.m. Panama time.

The festivities also included a giant beer bash for hundreds of Americans on a grassy area at the tip of the zone on the Pacific Ocean side.

At midnight, when Parfitt's tenure also ends, Panamanian government officials planned a huge fireworks display from the top of the zone's 650-foot Ancon Hill, which overlooks the canal's Pacific entrance as well as Panama City.

The government urged all of the country's 1.8 million citizens to participate in a symbolic entrance march into the zone beginning at 8:30 p.m. Monday. The march was to end up at Albrook Air Field, where an estimated 250,000 persons, including Vice President Walter Mondale, were expected to attend a rally beneath giant portraits of Panamanian leaders and President Carter.

Bond will address faculty senate

A leading Eastern administrator will address the faculty senate Tuesday, senate chairman Leonard Wood said Friday.

Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs Thomas A. Bond will speak with the senators at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Union addition Martinville Room.

"When I invited him, I didn't have a topic for him," Wood said. He said Herbert Lasky of the history department polled the senators to find topics they are interested in discussing. Lasky then passed this information on the Bond, he added.

Wood said the vice president will probably speak about academic programs and general requirements.

"He'll probably talk about the Council on University Planning and Budget," Wood said.

Wood said the rest of the meeting will consist of routine committee reports and other business.

The meeting is open to the public.

Play ticket sales booming

by Veronica Adermann

Lysistrata, a play presented by the Eastern Illinois Interpreter's Theatre, is drawing large audiences, director Dan Silverman said.

Silverman said tickets were sold out Friday and again by 7 p.m. Saturday.

Attendance on Sunday was 95 percent, and by 4:30 p.m. Sunday 60 percent of the tickets for Monday's performance were sold, Silverman said.

Silverman said there were between 40 and 50 people turned away at the Friday and Saturday performances, and he urges people to get their tickets for the Monday and Tuesday performances as soon as possible.

The audiences are responding "very, very positively" to the play, Silverman said.

Lysistrata is centered around the women of Athens who withhold sexual favors from their husbands in an effort to stop the war they are involved in.

Because of the nature of the play, persons under 18 years of age are not allowed to see the play, Silverman said. He added there have been no problems with this regulation.

Blood drive seeks liquid assets

Students can sign-up for a specific time to donate blood from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Thursday in the University Union lobby, blood drive chairman Randy Stocker said.

The drive will begin Oct. 8 in the Union addition Grand Ballroom, Stocker said.

Oct. 8 and 10 will be appointment days and on Oct. 9 and 11 walk-ins will be able to donate, Stocker said.

Donors will be taken from 1 to 6 p.m. on Monday and from 11 a.m. to 4:15 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday, Stocker added.

Tables will also be set up in residence hall cafeterias at dinner time to set appointments, Stocker said.

The goal for this fall's drive is 1,400 pints, Stocker said.

Last spring's goal was also 1,400, but only 1,389 pints were collected, Stocker added.

Rape seminar scheduled Thursday

A rape seminar sponsored by Campus Women's Concern will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday in the University Union Ballroom Nancy Olsen, a member of Campus Women's Concern said.

Olsen said the rape seminars have been held annually in residence halls, but this year, because of the club's desire to reach more students, the seminar will be held in the Old Ballroom.

Speakers include Bonnie Buckley and Carol Specht from Coles County Women Against Rape, Kathy Warren from the University Police and Bud Sanders from the Counseling Center, Olsen said.

Each speaker will discuss one aspect of rape, Olsen said.

A film on rape will also be shown, Olsen said.

Vehicle drives for poems, stories

Students can let their ideas travel to the Vehicle.

The Vehicle, Eastern's student literary magazine published twice yearly, is taking entries for fall publication, Victor Bobb, adviser for the Vehicle, said Wednesday.

The deadline for submitting material is 4:30 p.m. November 5. "We hope to distribute it the first week of December," Bobb said.

Entries must be students' own work. They have to be typed, double-spaced on 8 1/2 by 11 inch paper. Artwork can be any size—black and white drawings, cartoons or photographs.

Name, address and telephone number should be on a separate card attached to the manuscript.

Bobb said he is going to try to put up posters all over campus this year to publicize the Vehicle. "It is very much a student thing."

"In the past about 200 entries were submitted each semester. There were 27 stories and poems selected last spring," Bobb said.

The members of Sigma Tau Delta, the English honor society, judge the entries. Committees of at least five people read each manuscript and vote.

"Each piece of literature has at least two readings," Bobb said.

There will be a charge of 10 cents a copy for the Vehicle this fall, Annette Heinz, Vehicle editor, said. This will measure students' interest in the magazine.

The Apportionment Board said last semester they would help members of Sigma Tau Delta sell copies of the Vehicle, she added.

At the end of spring semester three English professors choose the top three short stories and top three poems.

The English honor society then awards prizes of $25 for first place, $15 for second place and $10 for third place to the entries for both short stories and poems. The best entry will receive a $50 prize from the Winnie Davis Neely Foundation.

For more information call Annette Heinz at 345-2223. Submit entries to Coleman Hall Rooms 304, 308, 315E.

Tryouts Slated for 'Answers'

Auditions for the first 5 o'clock Theatre production of the season will be held from 1 to 4 p.m. Tuesday in the Fine Arts Playroom.

Play director Gretchen Righter said the production, "Answers" by Tom Topor, involves two police officers interrogating a murder suspect.

Righter said parts are available for three men.

The play will be held at 5 p.m. Oct. 18, Righter said.

Art Week to begin Sunday

Arts Week, sponsored by the Illinois Arts Council, begins Oct. 6, with a week-long observation of the arts being planned, Don Carmichael, director of Eastern's proposed Tarble Arts Center said.

Arts Week, which was first celebrated last fall, was designed to set aside a time each year to salute the arts, Carmichael said.

Carmichael said activities on campus will include a faculty music recital, the Antares Jazz Ensemble and a choral concert.

Band director Harold Hillyer said he hopes to bring back alumni band members for a marching band festival.

Arts Week is celebrated throughout the state and begins Oct. 13 with the presentation of the Governor's Awards for the Arts at a special dinner at the Governor's mansion in Springfield, Carmichael said.

Ten awards are given to organizations or individuals who have contributed significantly to the arts, Carmichael said.

Vaughn Jaenike, Dean of the School of Fine Arts, was nominated for a Governor's Award last year and again this year for "Celebration," a festival of the arts held each spring at Eastern, Jaenike's secretary said.

Carmichael said Arts Week is a way to introduce communities to new talent and developments in the arts.

Service number begins operation

by Tim Schmidt

The new "Time 'N Temperature" telephone number set up by the Coles County National Bank and the Illinois Consolidated Telephone Company officially begins operation today, Dave Robinson, vice president of CCNB said Sunday.

Robinson said the service has been in a trial period for about two weeks while CCNB and ICTC worked out some kinks before the official opening.

By dialing the 24-hour service at 348-8436, Eastern students along with residents of Charleston, Ashmore and Oakland can obtain the current time and temperature for the area at no charge to the caller.

Robinson said the cost of the service is being shared by CCNB and ICTC.

'Acro Imps' program youngsters gymnastics

Under the direction of Eastern physical education instructor John Schaefer, a group of Chattanooga youngsters called "Acro Imps" participate in a weekly program in gymnastics.

Schaefer and his assistants put on classes through the Office of Physical Service and Development at Eastern, and is open to students 6-16 years old.

The Acro Imps program is held every Monday and Tuesday.

naches skills

from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m.
Schaefer said that the program was started in 1969
under the Charleston Recreation Department, but was switched to Eastern in 1975.

In the early 70's, the group did compete in some junior gymnastics meets, but now the program is run strictly to allow area youngsters exercise and teach the fundamentals of gymnastics.

Cross country squad rolls to double victory

by Matt Davidson
MUNCIE, Ind.—Keeping its undefeated season intact, Eastern’s men’s cross country team breezed to a double dual victory over Eastern Michigan 16-48 and Ball State 15-50 Saturday.

The outcome pleased coach Tom Woodall because “it was very hot and humid compared to what we’d ben running in. The fellows were really up. They really worked well together as a team and there was a lot of communication helping each other along.

“All of our meets are like stepping stones and this is our third step up in a row,” he said. “Of course next week’s the biggie (the annual Notre Dame Invitational.)”

Pacing the Panthers to their triumph was the trio of Joe Sheeran, Reo Rorem, and Larry Schuldt. “All three ran identical times of 25:09, but Woodall said “Joe actually crossed the finish line first with Reo second. Sheeran’s first place finish marks the second consecutive week in which he has taken individual honors in double dual competition.

Woodall was pleased with the leaders performance saying “Joe and Reo kind of set the pace,” but added that “had they been pressed I think they probably could have gotten more out of themselves.”

But what really made the coach happy was the running of “unsung” Larry Schuldt. “He has really been doing a good job,” Woodall said. “He was some 50 to 60 yards behind Joe and Reo at the last mile mark.”

Booters blank Cincinnati 3-0

by Kathy Klisares
CINCINNATI—Despite being “roughed up pretty much” and playing on an unfamiliar Astro turf field, Eastern’s soccer squad shut out NCAA Division I University of Cincinnati 3-0 Sunday.

“Cincinnati was a real physical team and it really hurt us the first half, because we were still trying to adjust to the turf,” coach Schellas Hyndman said.

Striker Gordon Prempeh did not hesitate on either count and scored in the ninth minute of the game from about eight yards out on a cross from John Jozsa.

“I was really glad to see Gordon finally score,” Hyndman commented. “He’s hit the goal post five times so far this season, but this was his first goal,” Hyndman continued concerning last year’s leading scorer.

Leading 1-0 at the half, the Panthers prepared for a much better second period. “We played pretty well the second half because we got back into our ball possession style, and they had to run around after us, so they couldn’t be as physical,” Hyndman said.

Midfielder Vincente DiBella took a shot from nearly 30 yards out in the 15th minute of the second half and scored an unassisted goal in the corner of the net before the goalie had a chance to even react.

Striker Ross Ongaro followed up a shot on goal by Jozsa and turned it into the Panther’s third and final goal of the game in the 25th minute.

The Panthers will be “starting out right where we left off with Cincinnati,” Hyndman said, as they travel to Xavier to take on another Cincinnati area team at 3 p.m. Monday.

Senior Mike Viano celebrated his 21st birthday by taking fourth place in 25:14, while “passing a couple of runners near the end of the race,” Woodall said.

Eastern Michigan managed to have two runners place in the top eight with Don Stamiyeh finishing fifth in 25:16 and teammate Don McClory eighth in 25:42.

Junior Mike Moore was sixth in 25:24 with sophomore Chuck Elliot seventh in 25:29. With Moore’s time the Panthers had a spread of only 15 seconds for their top five runners, an improvement over last week’s 30 second spread.

Woodall said Elliot’s run was not a surprise saying “he’s been running very good. He just kept hanging in there. Chuck Elliot has a lot of courage. He has many of the same characteristics that many of our great runners have had.”

Panther fans make themselves known at SIU

by Betsey Guzior

CARBONDALE — The spirit of Eastern came down to Carbondale as Panther fans came here last weekend to watch the football game.

“Gatsby’s” and “American Tap,” two of Southern’s college bars, were looking slightly like Friday night at Sporty’s or Roc’s, with fans sporting Eastern T-shirts and hats, drinking and betting with their Southern companions.

Later in the evening, Eastern fans were up supporting their favorite team by shouting “EIU” in bars and from automobile windows.

At McAndrew Stadium Saturday, blue and white championship T-shirts dotted the west side, where Southern fans sit, and one block was filled mostly with fans from Charleston.

Makeshift cheerleaders led groups of fans with obscene and somewhat cruel cheers for the marching Salukis and the mascot dogs.

Some people came down for just the day; others stayed the weekend.

A large number of Eastern fans traveled to Carbondale this weekend to contribute to a McAndrew Stadium record crowd and a Panther football victory. (News photo by Rich Bauer)

Junior Derek Storm came down with the pledge class of Delta Chi. Storm said the pledges were on their walk-out, as were the Tau Kappa Epsilon pledges.

The Alpha Phi sorority was invited by members of Western’s Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity to stay overnight and join them at the game.

Senior Terri Burianek said she sat near the 40 yard line, and when Southern scored its first touchdown, early in the first quarter, “we just sat there while everyone else cheered.

But when Eastern came ahead in scoring, “We just went crazy.”

Another Eastern fan came down with 11 others in a Winnebago. They slept in the stadium parking lot after the vehicle ran out of gas.

Storm said he and other fans walked through a dorm cafeteria and shouted their loyalty for Eastern.

Junior Shelia Armstrong drove her car with six others Saturday to see the game. Armstrong said she and her companions were only staying for a while—going to the bars after the game were their only plans.

Four people came down Saturday with freshman Mike Willett, and said he wanted to find some friends who are attending school at SIU-C.

Charleston residents and some faculty members were seen at the game Saturday. Director of University Food Services John Hall, businessman Bob Gilbertson and pink Panthers adviser Marge Ann Ciaravino were among those rooting for Eastern.

All in all, the atmosphere at Southern Illinois University was one of Panther fever.

Women's tennis squad scores two easy wins

Eastern's women's tennis team raised its record to 3-6 this weekend by ripping Northern Illinois 8-1 and Western Illinois 8-1 at the Weller courts.

Jill Anderson, Debbie Belton and Josie Riberto led the way as they were victorious in two singles and two doubles matches each.

Anderson, the No. 1 singles player, won 6-3, 6-2 against Northern on Friday and 6-3, 6-4 against Western on Saturday.

Belton won 6-1, 6-2 and then 6-4, 6-1 at No. 2 singles, and teamed with Anderson to beat Northern's No. 1 doubles team 7-5, 6-3 and Western's top duo 7-5, 7-6.

Riberto won 6-3, 6-0 at No. 4 against Northern and 6-0, 6-1 at No. 5 against Western. In doubles, she teamed with Patty Groth for a 6-2, 6-1 win at No. 3 doubles against Northern and then played with Maureen Fitzpatrick at No. 3 Saturday and won 6-0, 6-1.

Groth won two singles matches, coming from behind to beat her No. 5 Northern foe 6-7, 6-3, 6-2 and then won at No. 4 against Western 6-4, 6-2.

The Panthers No. 3 singles player Julie Krueger split her matches. Krueger won against Western 6-4, 6-2, but lost to her Northern opponent 6-2, 6-2.

At No. 6 Kristen Peterson won 6-1, 6-1 on Friday and Janet Haberkorn stepped in Saturday to win 6-0, 6-1.

Haberkorn and Krueger lost twice at No. 2 doubles. They bowed to Northern 2-6, 6-1, 6-0 and to Western 6-4, 6-4.

The Panthers will compete at the Millikin Invitational this weekend.

Volleyball team wins all 6 over Western, St. Francis

by Dan Brannon

Eastern's volleyball team crushed Western Illinois and St. Francis Saturday afternoon at McAfee Gym as it swept six straight games.

The opening game of the match against Western was very close as Eastern won 16-14.

"Winning the opening game definitely helped motivate us as it set the tempo for the rest of the match," coach Lynette Nevins said.

Eastern was never challenged the rest of the match as it won 15-4 and 15-3 in the next two games.

"Western threw a lot of junk at us today, but once our defense picked it up, we had no problems," Nevins said.

The St. Francis match was another rout for Eastern as it won three straight games 15-9, 15-5 and 15-3.

"St. Francis will probably be our toughest Division II opponent in the state," Nevins said.

Nevins also felt Eastern's concentration could have been the key to the six straight victories.

"Our concentration level was very high today, and we played very intense although the competition was not that good," Nevins said.

Nevins felt Kathy Shoene and Liane Erickson were two of the standouts for Eastern on the day.

"Kathy found many holes in the blocks for points and Liane had a very nice day playmaking and setting the ball," Nevins said.

Mel Spirn, Liz Plateau and Mary Martello were also credited with excellent play on the day by the coach.

"If we keep up our intensity and we learn from our mistakes, we should have a very good season," the coach said.

Eastern's next competition will be this weekend in a tournament at the University of Missouri at St. Louis.

"It will probably be fair competition as mainly Division I teams will be in the tournament," Nevins said.

Field hockey team tops Rockford, plays to scoreless tie with Oshkosh

by Theresa Norton

MILWAUKEE - A frustrating 0-0 tie against University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh and a trouncing 4-0 victory over Rockford College highlighted Eastern's field hockey team's weekend activities.

"We dominated the Oshkosh game, but our hitting was off," coach Betty Temple said Sunday.

"Oshkosh got the ball across the 50 yard line maybe five times during the game, and they only took three shots," Temple said.

"We took 20 shots, but we kept missing by a little bit. The ball would bounce off the goal post," she added.

"In the last five minutes we were really pressing and we took about six shots, but missed them all. It was very frustrating," Temple said.

In the victory against Rockford College, sophomore Donna Macios scored two goals in the second half to pad the 1-0 lead gained by sophomore Sue Carr's first-half goal.

The game was further ensured by freshman Kim Olson's goal, who was assisted on that point by freshman Mary Ohl.

"Carr and Olson looked really good in this game," Temple said.

Temple also cited the efforts of first year player Peg Moore, who "played well all around this weekend," as well as junior Becky LeGrande who earned herself six saves in the Rockford game.

Catan leads defensive heroics against Salukis

by Brian Nielsen

CARBONDALE—Picking out the star among stars in Eastern's thrilling 22-14 victory over Southern Illinois-Carbondale was not too difficult for Panther defensive coordinator John Teerlinck.

"If Pete Catan isn't the player of the week in the nation, then I don't know who is," Teerlinck boasted.

No national player of the week award is chosen as far as most people know, but Catan certainly awed the McAndrew Stadium record crowd of 17,769 Saturday.

Other MCC scores

Youngstown St. 29 Northern Iowa 0

The junior honorable mention defensive end spearheaded a Panther defense that forced seven Saluki turnovers and limited Southern to just 84 yards in the second half.

The Panther front line made things miserable for Southern all day, especially its two quarterbacks.

Tackles Randy Melvin and Charlie Krutsinger combined for 17 tackles and three quarterback sacks.

But it was Catan who saved the day in the game's final seven minutes after the Panthers finally overcame Southern's early lead.

The 6-foot-3, 235-pounder blasted Saluki starting quarterback John Cernak five yards behind the line of scrimmage, forcing a fumble that linebacker Ray Jeske recovered. That set up Dan DiMartino's 39-yard field goal which gave the Panthers their final 22-14 margin.

Catan followed that up with two more quarterback sacks in Southern's final possession, including the one that sealed Southern's fate when he dumped Arthur Williams on the fourth down with 41 seconds remaining.

For the day, Catan finished with seven tackles, three sacks, two fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles according to final statistics sheets handed out in the press box, but Eastern coaches had him for six sacks.

Catan called Saturday's performance his best ever against the pass although "I've had better days against the rush."

game of Eastern's season so far and what some consider its biggest ever helped Catan forget a day that was below Catan's self-standards in last year's NCAA Division II championship victory over Delaware.

"If I'd have done this against Delaware I'd have been happy," he said.

Catan could not decide which win, last year's over Delaware or Saturday's over NCAA Division I-A Southern, was a greater team victory, however.

"If you wake up in the morning and your mother fixes you a real nice breakfast, you like it," he said. "Then if she fixes you a real nice breakfast the next morning you like that one too. But which breakfast are you going to like best?"

"I like the one I'm eating right now though," he said.

Invaluable to Eastern's victory Saturday may have been the time Catan spent in the film room last week.

"I watched films of Southern for six or seven hours," Catan said. "I studied the guys I'd go up against, No. 67 (Chris Lockwood) and 74 (Mark Mielock) and I saw the strategy I was going to use against them. I worked in and under and then went around the outside."

"The way they could have kept me from getting in there (on the pass rush) might have been if the quarterback wouldn't have made such a big drop back, because when they dropped back so far I could just outrun them. He's running backwards and I'm going forward, so I could get to him," Catan said.

Catan did hand out praise to the two Southern offensive linemen he went against for most of the day.

"They were good," he acknowledged. "They were real good on the rush, and they're both just sophomores."

"They came out fast right at the beginning," he continued. "But maybe they're not in as good of shape as we are. We have stamina. They were dying, but we were dying too. I know I was dying. It was so hot. But I just reached back for a little more strength."
